ABOUT URBAN RESOURCE INSTITUTE

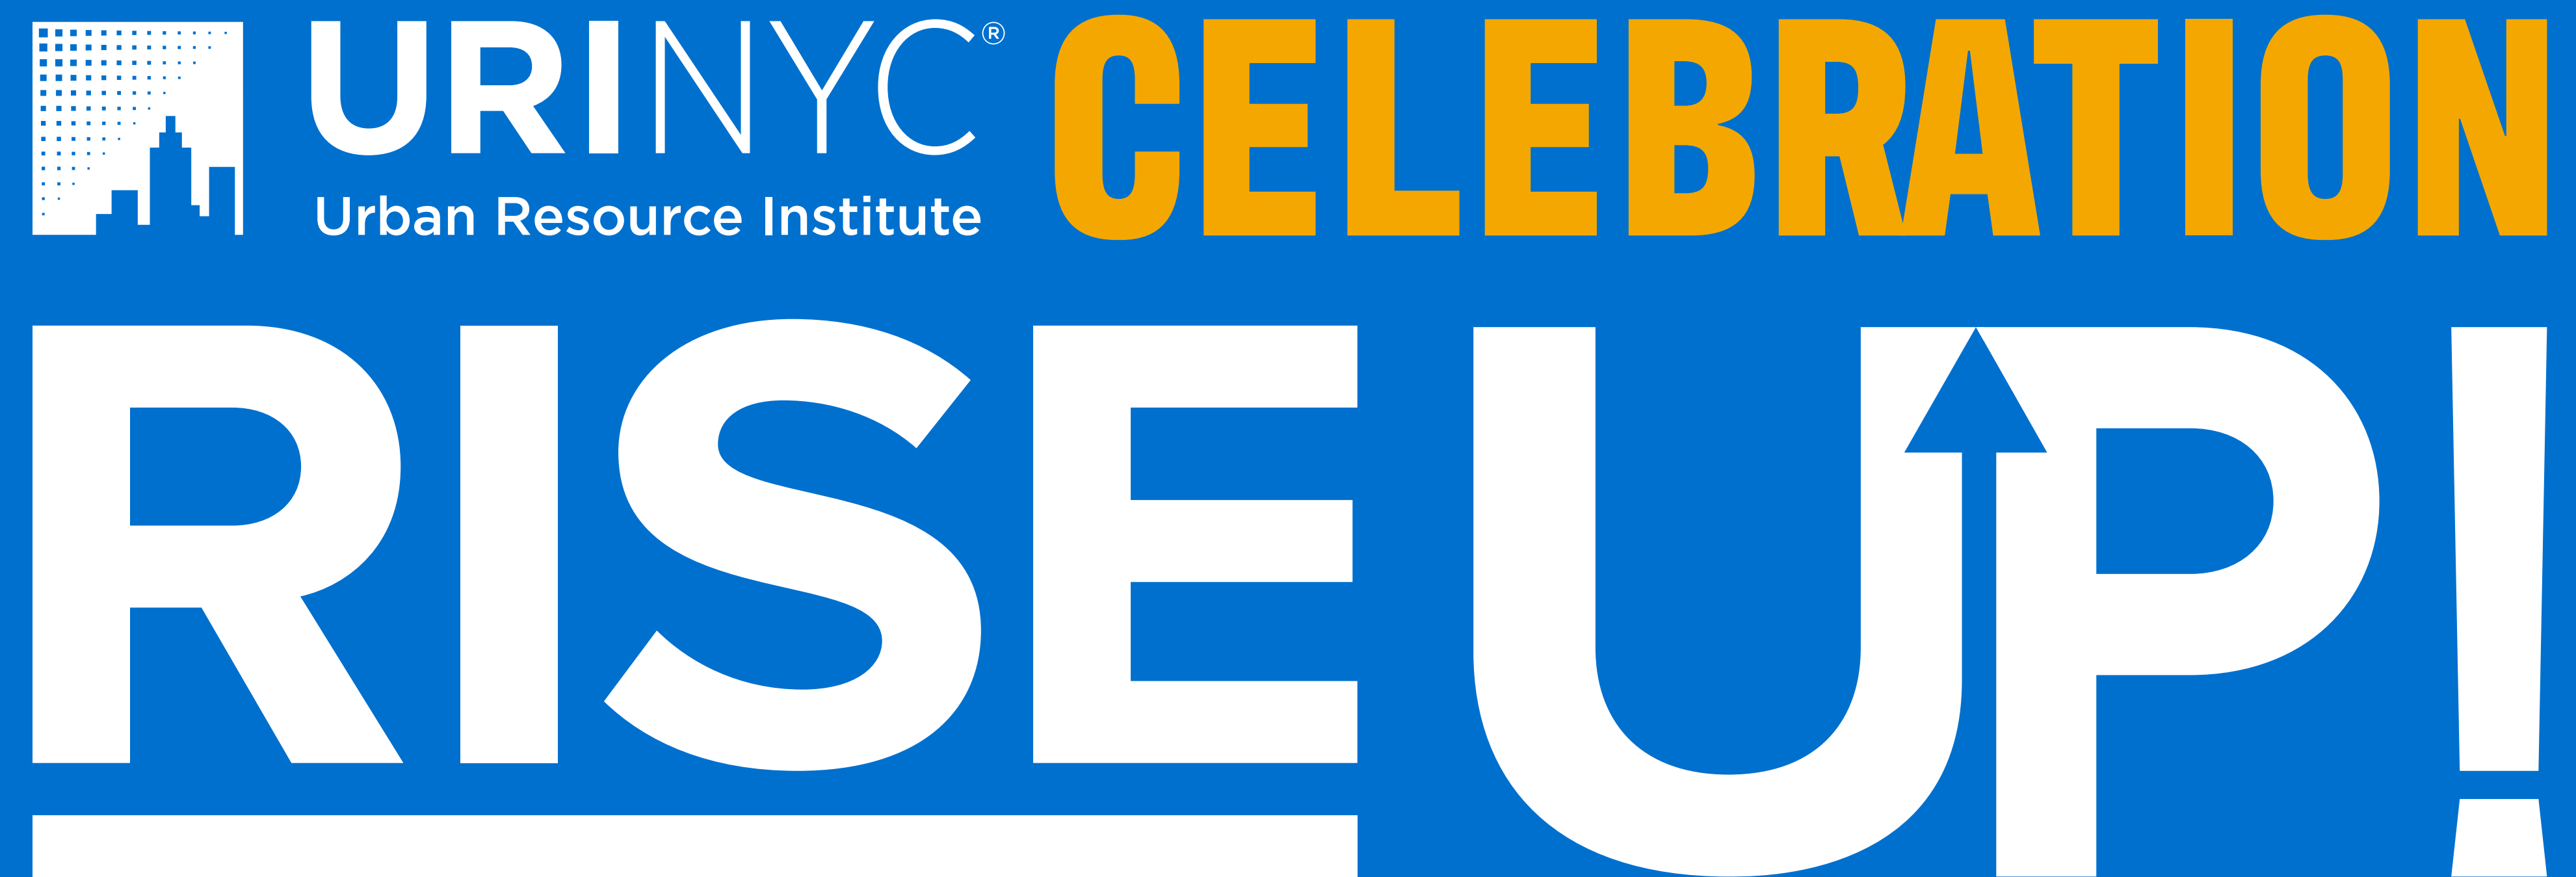

Founded in 1980, Urban Resource Institute (URI) is committed to a world free of domestic violence and homelessness, where individuals and communities are safe, stable and thriving. URI is a pioneer in providing safe shelter and comprehensive services that empower adults and children to rebuild their lives and create brighter futures, along with a portfolio of innovative programs focused on prevention and intervention to break the cycles of violence, poverty, homelessness and trauma. URI is the largest provider of domestic violence shelter services in the U.S. and is a recognized thought leader influencing service delivery across the country and around the world.

Services and programs include:

- Safe, apartment style shelter for 2,200 adults and children every night
- The only pet-friendly domestic violence shelters in New York City
- Long-term housing assistance
- Workforce development and job training
- Financial literacy and education
- Legal assistance and representation
- Education and recreational services
- Group and individual counseling
- High school and middle school programs on healthy relationships
- Therapeutic intervention programs for abusive partners

ABOUT THE URI CELEBRATION: RISE UP!

The 2021 URI Celebration: Rise Up! virtual event will take place on Wednesday, October 20th with an online broadcast commencing at 7:00pm EST. Together with virtual guests from around the world, we will recognize the strength and resilience of our clients and staff who rise up every day, honor the dedication of our partners, and give thanks to our strongest supporters.

Join us for an evening of hope, inspiration, and community.

Your support of the URI Celebration: Rise Up! helps ensure that we can continue to provide exceptional programs and services for thousands of adults, teens and children who depend upon URI. We hope you will consider purchasing a sponsorship package and, in turn, help us continue to drive our mission of a world free of domestic violence and homelessness. Rise up with us!
